

Glass Coffin Club - End Of Time Lyrics

1. Against Time

wilted roses scattering across your place of rest Crucified to suffer emptiness fills my chest salt for all my wounds drug through shards of broken glass Prisoner of my mind
I'm shackled to my past

Through day in and day out
walls close in losing grip

taking the long way out
my soul begins to slip

strangers slowly drift

my soul begins to slip

taking time dig my grave chain me up be your slave hours spent burning midnight dusk with you by my side left behind with bloodstained memories of the past the nights we lived creatures we thought would always last walk up to the gates of hell shedding my skin this mortal shell this grand exit of mortal coil leaving earths foil

Through day in and day out

my soul begins to slip

2. Garden Of Lies

Rain echoes down this frigid night Silence piercing the moon Weathered statues once stood tall withered now in ruined gloom Garden of lies alluring
But my eyes can see the rot Calling me to my curing Ensnaring me, your plot

Searching for my final place of rest While the world just carries on I'm Finding myself less impressed This new generation of spawn Leeching off Inherited wealth Sure makes living easy fast will it matter in your casket When it's erased with your past

Debris settles amongst the ruins
Their slow prolonged decay
With the lies of the illusions Nothing beautiful stays Eternity it can feel Trapped in our personal hells
With our blood bound in seal Locked in this mortal Shell In searching for an end I found questions to ask meaning hidden beneath the mask

3. Dance of the end days -

Vermin with no purpose Beyond an endless destruction illusion of society
All done in a blind service Entities that control Things we see upon the surface
I've bled at that altar
It rejected my soul

Restlessness in my thoughts
While I lay awake every night Sorting through what's real Picking through the lies
It all just seems like shit Using people as pawns for games Accepting piss as penance With smiling disgrace

The world I thought I once knew Has set up it's own demise
These mind control agendas With Technological disguis Their hunger for advancement Questions not meant for man Brining forth extinction

To our sacred land

This dance the end of days
Ignorance is bliss
The clocks constant ticking Awaiting our abyss

4. Cadence of Cruelty -

Underneath sinking sand Shapeshifters slither and dance Judged in guilt by the red hand
The hangman takes his stance
The cards we drew brought decay While the flowers wither and rot we Taking the death of our love
For it all to be forgot

Tormented by these visions From future present and past Sliced through clean with each incision Underneath their porcelain masks
No solace in these nightmares There's no peace inside these dreams
The nightmare takes on many forms Preying on my sleep

Rejecting normalcy
This chaos is what you seek When you're left trapped alone
No words are left to speak Too late for light or healing Pain carried into the next These wasted lives spent feeling Hollow in my chest

Gifted the curse of sight
Horrors of eternal life

Wander the aimless night on

5. Dreams of Despair -

With each new sun that rises
From the death of the last Truths hidden beneath disguises Fractures in the mask Exposing nature
Secrets under the burning flesh Shrouded in empty prayers Dreading what comes next guy

Tear my mind inside out
Coursing through my veins
Drowning in my fears and doubts
Ensnared within these chains
Faced with judgement on my soul
This cyclical rebirth
Forever cursed to roam once more
This hellscape of earth

Wasted days pass and fade Buried beneath the lies Desperate and afraid Plead to an empty sky
This) yearning for a home
My Place of eternal rest
No love for me in this life Seeking mercy in my death

Tear my mind inside out
Coursing through my veins
Drowning in my fears and doubts
Faced with judgement on my soul
This cyclical rebirth kills
Forever cursed to roam once more

Trapped within these four walls Isolating the outside world
The clocks second hand crawls Suffocating loneliness
Lay awake and beg for sleep
Never safe within my dreams
The shadows take their forms Plagued by their vile screams

6. Scarlet Tomb

Take all that you've got Consuming our blood Leaving us to rot While they gorge upon the flood playing the martyr of sin the crown of their thorns It Adorns my skin the crimson sinks in

These feelings inside me
longing for a cure
But the symptoms persist
i tried to bury you
Drown out the noises to resist
Scared of your games and tricks

Eyes lit up like moonlight Plotting your next move If I give in to your games forever cursed to lose Crawl in the shadows
Waiting for my weakness
Our Eternal chase
This personal hell

Demented show and tell The visions of hell Waiting for your vile chance place your visions in my brain Though you come expected Your foul tricks and games

I can't brace for the pain

This swirling torment
As my souls spent Exiled from love
Dying for your scent
While each day dies
Stuck here without you Drowning in the lies

These feelings inside me
i tried to bury you
